

Pike Conservation Workshop Series
Protecting the Natural Resources of Pike County

“Save our Land, Save our Towns”

Thomas Hylton

Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist

October 18, 2005

7:00pm

PPL Environmental Learning Center

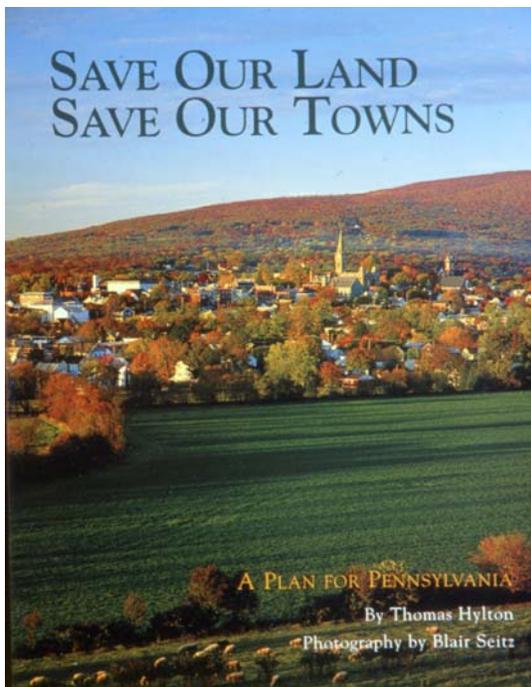

Rt. 6 Hawley, PA

(next to the Wallenpaupack High School)

Program Sponsors:

Delaware Highlands Conservancy
The Lackawaxen River Conservancy
Pike County Conservation District

This public program is free and snacks and refreshments will be available.

Thomas Hylton explains how regional planning, growth boundaries and traditional town design can help fulfill our needs as a community including: economic development, lower cost of living, revival of our small towns, provide secure & neighborly communities, provide equal opportunities for all our children and protect our environment. For more information on this program or to register please call Michele Ulmer, Education Coordinator, PCCD at 570-226-8220.

Pike Conservation Partnership

Pike County Conservation District, Pike County Office of Community Planning, Delaware Highlands Conservancy, Penn State Cooperative Extension, The Nature Conservancy, Alliance to Keep Pike Green, The Pinchot Institute of Conservation, the Upper Delaware Visioning Committee, and the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

Financial and other support for this project is provided by the Pennsylvania Association of Conservation Districts, Inc. through a grant with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Section 319 Program.